TEELINGS VINTAGE RESERVE 21

Containing some of the oldest Single Malt Irish whiskey ever bottled the Teeling Whiskey Company Vintage Reserve Collection allows you to savour and appreciate Irish whiskey at its finest. This Silver Reserve bottling consists of 21 Year Old Irish whiskey distilled in 1991 and matured firstly in Bourbon casks then allowed to marry in Sauterne wine casks to provide a truly unique Irish whiskey taste experience. Consisting of only hand selected casks chosen for their distinctive taste qualities this small batch bottling is limited to only 5,000 bottles.

On the nose there are aromas of whites grapes, cut grass, apricots and white chocolate, while the taste is silky smooth with flavours of fig jam, honey, apricots, white chocolate and a crisp saltiness at the finish which balances the sweetness perfectly.

€17

MIDDLETON VERY RARE

A blended Whiskey launched in 1984 to celebrate the whiskeys produced in the East Cork town of Middleton. As the name suggests it is only produced in very small quantities, only 50 casks of each vintage are ever produced. Each whiskey in the blend is hand picked by the Master Distiller, has been triple distilled and aged for 12-25 years in individually selected Bourbon or Sherry casks.

TASTING NOTES

On the nose you will find an initial light sweet top note of cane sugar attributed to the influence of the well-aged grain whiskey. Then the pot still spices appear along with vanilla, charred oak, milk chocolate and green apples. The taste is very soft and mellow with a balance of confectionary sweetness through soft ripe fruits to the more robust pot still spices with the charred oak and barley grains add to the wonderful complexity.

€19

CONNEMARA BOG OAK

Three casks of Connemara were carefully chosen and fitted with handcrafted ends made from Bog Oak unearthed on the famous coastal blanket bog of Connemara. Monitored religiously by the Connemara Master Distiller the Bog Oak casks when bottled at cask strength (57,5%) produced the first and only 1000 bottles of Connemara Bog Oak.

Connemara Bog Oak is rather balanced and elegant which must be of compliments and coming from the Bog oak itself, with of course the heavy peated taste synonymous with Connemara.

€28

MIDDLETON BARRY CROCKETT LEGACY

A Single Pot Still whiskey bearing the name of the legendary second generation Master Distiller Barry Crockett who oversaw the Middleton whiskey production for over three decades. A blend of pot stills that have been matured exclusively in American Bourbon barrels with a subtle contribution from a pot still distillate matured in virgin American Oak.

TASTING NOTES

On the nose there will be a complex, spicy and fruity aroma with notes of toasted wood evident. Full flavoured and complex Middleton Barry Crockett is a harmonious balance of spicy, creamy, fruity, sherry and toasted notes. Satisfyingly long the complex flavours will linger on the palate.

€30

JAMESON RAREST VINTAGE RESERVE

Jameson Rarest Vintage Reserve is the ultimate expression of the Jameson distilling expertise. For this first vintage, fortified port pipe casks were used for maturing one of the pot still whiskeys imparting a glorious fruit rich character to the whiskey. The combination of the oldest and rarest parcels of whiskey by the Jameson whiskey Masters of Distillation, Blending and Maturation result in a whiskey with depth, complexity and a supremely lavish taste.

A highly acclaimed Whiskey, Jameson Rarest Vintage Reserve won double gold at the 2011 San Francisco World Spirits Competition whilst also twice winning 'Malt Advocate' magazines' Irish Whiskey of the year.

PIÉTRI-GÉRAUD

Banyuls Rimage AC, Roussillon 2011

Banyuls wines come from the south-eastern corner of Roussillon, southern France, just a few miles from the border with Spain. These sweet vins doux naturels come in wide range of hues, from golden-green (Banyuls Blanc) to amber (Banyuls Ambré) and the intense garnet of the standard Banyuls Rouge. Banyuls wines are made from grapes harvested in the early fall, when they reach a naturally high level of sweetness.

€5

CHÂTEAU D'ARCHE
